FOREWORD

To Mr. and Mrs. Public and all the Little Publics:—

DEAR FOLKS:—In response to the clamoring for a collection of "Bringing Up Father" cartoons that has been going on for nearly three years, I herewith dedicate this book to you all. It was an awful job to draw so many pictures, and the least you can do in return to help along a poor but honest artist is to buy a lot of copies. With this income tax business, the high cost of living, and the punky little royalty that I'm getting out of this, I figure that I've got to sell 600,000,000 copies to make any money. That makes 6 copies for every man, woman and child in the United States. I'm thinking of getting out a Spanish edition to supply Porto Rico and the Philippines, and one in Eskimo for Alaska.

So loosen up, good people. Nix on buying just one copy. Every patriot will keep one copy lying on his parlor table, one in the kitchen for the cop, one for shaving paper, and one for the baby to play with—to say nothing of those that he ought to give away to other patriots. I can also highly recommend the paper in the book for laying under carpets.

Seriously, however, I hope you will all like Father in this form, and that you will sympathize with Maggie in her efforts to train him so that he will adorn the swell, social sphere which Maggie understands as well as a Moro cannibal understands hydrostatics—whatever they may be.

Sincerely yours,

GEOMCMANUS
